We should prioritize border security first and focus on immigration reform much later when we have fully solved the crisis of migrants at the U.S-Mexico border, even if that means leaving millions of undocumented immigrants at risk of deportation	42	35	40	52	34	52	43	44	32
The immigration system is fully broken—we need to work on both border security and reform for undocumented immigrants who have been in the US for many years who can pass a background check to earn a pathway to citizenship.	58	65	60	48	66	48	57	56	68

Univision News commissioned a representative survey with Nevada registered voters age 18 and over. Interviews for this survey were conducted between October 12 and October 19, 2022. Data were collected using both probability and non-probability sample sources for a total of 1000 observations. The overall margin of error for the combined sample is +/- 3.1 percentage points at the 95 percent confidence level, including the design effect. The survey includes an oversample of Latino ($n= 400$, $MOE +/- 4.9$). The margin of sampling error may be higher for other subgroups. Surveys were administered in English or Spanish at the discretion of the respondent and included a mix of cell phone, landline telephone, text-to-web, and online self-completed interviews; all respondents were verified to be registered voters. We provide results for all registered voters ($n=1000$) and among likely voters ($n = 721$). The survey was overseen by Dr. Sergio Garcia-Rios, director of polling for Univision, and administered by BSP Research and Shaw & Co.
